Second Quarter 2019

President's Letter

Your CRA Leadership Team of officers, Area VPs, committee chairs, and Past Presidents gathered in the San Francisco area for our Mid-Year Meeting at the end of January. Rhonda Morris, Chevron's VP, Human Resources, joined us for dinner, and representatives from Chevron Benefits and Chevron Corporate Affairs (formerly Policy, Government & Public Affairs) joined us for updates and discussions during our business meetings. We reviewed progress on CRA projects since last May's Annual Meeting in San Antonio, and prepared for the 2019 Annual Meeting in New Orleans!

Kathleen Henschel, President

This year, we will meet from Sunday evening, May 19th through Tuesday evening, May 21st. Chapter Presidents and the Leadership Team will participate in business meetings, and spouses and guests will join us for dinners, and to listen to our Chevron Executive keynote speaker. The final evening also includes presentation of the two $5,000 Public Service Awards given by the Corporation each year. While the Annual Meeting delegates are at work, spouses and guests will enjoy local sites, as well as the great food and music New Orleans. We will all enjoy the camaraderie of our fellow CRA members!

Any CRA member can join us in New Orleans as a Member-at-Large. Just ask your Chapter President to forward the meeting details and registration materials to you – the registration deadline is April 18th, both for the meeting and the hotel reservation. You can participate in the CRA meetings, listen to our Chevron keynote speaker, and/or enjoy the city and the tours arranged for the spouses and guests. I hope to see you there!!

And for our four important areas of focus for CRA this year --

Providing value to the members of CRA Please be sure to read Benefits Committee Chair Bill Dodge's Benefits Corner in this issue, and keep up to date on the Benefits news. All of our dues-paying members and all retirees and survivors can benefit from our close connections to the Corporation, to help work through the complicated situations that sometimes arise. Please call on us, should you not be able to get your questions answered directly through Via Benefits or the HR Service Center. We also work to provide useful and timely communications, both directly and through the Chapters, highlighting changes that are coming up, deadlines you need to meet, and information to keep you tuned in to the company's policies and activities.

Providing value to the Corporation Chevron has sent us a request and an opportunity for all retirees – they need help with housing about 500 interns this summer. Interns can start as early as the first week of May and stay through late August/early September, typically 10-12 weeks depending on their start date, and they are looking for housing in a variety of locations. The interns receive housing stipends to offset the cost of summer housing. If you are interested in sharing your experience with this summer's interns (the next generation of potential employees), read more details in the message from Sorell Williamson on page.

Our "Advocacy in Action" series has been postponed this quarter because of a personnel change. It will reappear next quarter.

The Chapters continue to spread the word and enlist retirees in the Chevron Advocacy Network. Please consider joining if you haven't already. We have over 900 retiree CAN members now, and only you CAN help push those numbers up. It's very easy to sign up – all you need is an email address. Sign up at <http://chevronretirees.org/ResourcesGroup/ChevronAdvocacyNetwork> You will get very timely and useful information, and it's good to stay up to date and be knowledgeable about the issues impacting our company and our industry, and your Chevron stock!

Connecting with our current and future members We continue to make sure we have CRA representatives at all Chevron "Ready 4 Retirement" events, Health Fairs and Boomer Employee Network retiree panel discussions. We make direct contact with soon-to-be retirees, talk to old friends, tell them what we're up to, and what we get out of being CRA members. If you're a more recent retiree, who will likely know more of the people at these events, please contact your Chapter President or Area VP about volunteering for upcoming events.

Developing CRA's future leaders Two CRA Fellowship program participants will be joining us in New Orleans, one from California and one from Texas. They are both already working on CRA National committees. We are delighted to have them with us, and thank them all for their commitment to CRA.

Since this is my last President's Letter before I join the ranks of the Past Presidents at the end of June, I want to especially thank all of the Chapter Presidents and all members of the CRA National Leadership Team for their commitment, their dedication, and their hard work on behalf of all of YOU, our CRA members. It has been a wonderfully rewarding and stimulating two years, and it has been an honor and a pleasure to work with you all. Many, many thanks!

Just a final reminder – Chapter boards and CRA National committee chairs are always eager to hear from new volunteers. Come and join us!

Sincerely,

Kathy

Based on strong performance, the Company now expects:

- Capital & exploratory (C&E) expenditures of $19 to 22 billion from 2021 to 2023
  - Three to four percent compound annual production growth through 2023
  - Permian unconventional production of 900,000 barrels per day in 2023
  - Six percent shareholder yield in 2019

Chevron Signs New Gas Agreement with GS Caltex

SINGAPORE, Feb. 13, 2019-- Chevron U.S.A. Inc, a wholly owned subsidiary of Chevron Corp, announced the signing of a sales and purchase agreement with GS Caltex Corporation for the delivery of liquefied natural gas (LNG) to South Korea from Chevron's global supply portfolio. As a joint venture between Chevron and GS Energy, GS Caltex has signed a long-term agreement and will begin receiving LNG in October 2019..

Chevron Partners with Catalyst to Advance Gender Equality

SAN RAMON, Calif. Feb. 26, 2019-- Chevron Corporation (NYSE:CVX) today announced a $5 million grant to Catalyst, a global nonprofit advancing workplace gender equality, in support of expanding the organization's Men Advocating Real Change (MARC) program, which Chevron adopted in 2016. MARC is focused on engaging and empowering male executives and leaders to consistently model inclusive behaviors, influence more equitable talent management systems and processes, and build effective partnerships across gender.

Chevron Intern Housing Program

From Sorell Williamson, Chevron Intern Program Specialist

Intern season is right around the corner which means we are busily preparing for the interns' arrival. While this is an exciting time for many of us, it can be overwhelming to many of our incoming interns; an exciting summer opportunity that can lead to a return offer, new location, and new friends.

Many of you who were former interns are all too familiar with the daunting task of moving to a new location AND finding short term housing for the duration of the internship which is why I am reaching out to you in hopes that you, or someone you know here at Chevron, would be willing to help.

If you have space available in your home, please consider renting a room to an intern for the summer. All interns receive a housing stipend which is intended to offset the cost of summer housing. In most instances, this stipend can cover the cost of room rental.

If interested, I will send you the link and the instructions to the intern housing portal so that you can post your room rental, similar to our Chevron classified ads. The intern will pay you directly.

We are hosting interns in the following locations:

Bakersfield, CA	Pascagoula, MS
El Segundo, CA	Moon Township, PA
Richmond, CA	Houston, TX
San Ramon, CA	Midland, TX
Covington, LA	Salt Lake City, UT

Feel free to pass along this email to any of your colleagues who may have interest, and please contact Sorell Williamson for more information.

Benefits Corner

2nd Quarter 2019

By Bill Dodge, Chair, CRA Benefits Committee

This is my first Benefits Corner as the new Chair of the Benefits Committee. I am indebted to my immediate predecessor John Dewes, who graciously served as Interim Chair, as well as Lezley Barth and Al Horan who also provided excellent service in that position. I retired from Chevron after 24 years of service in Human Resources with both Gulf Oil and Chevron. Throughout my career, I have had a keen interest in the Benefits area. I am certified as a Certified Employee Benefits Specialist (CEBS) and maintain membership in the International Society of Certified Employee Benefits Specialists (ISCEBS).

Bill Dodge

My CRA background includes serving as a former President of both the Metropolitan Houston and Hill County Chapters of the South Texas Area as well as serving as a member of the CRA Benefits Committee. I am joined on the Committee by Mark Engelbrecht, Herb Farrington, Carl Pataky, Jim Schultz and Jos van der Velden who are for the most part employee benefits /Human Resources professionals that retired from Chevron and its Legacy Companies. Our contact information is shown at the end of this article and is also provided on the CRA website under the Benefits menu in the Benefits Guide on page 4.

I thought it would be informative to start with a summary of recent developments in multiple areas of interest to CRA retirees.

- Updates to Benefits section of CRA website: Contacts and information updates as of January 1 2019, have been made to Benefit's section of the CRA website. The Benefits Guide and Benefits Tips and Helpful Information documents are updated and can be accessed using the web links shown on the website.
- New BenefitConnect website: Chevron communication to retirees is forthcoming about the full transition to the new BenefitConnect website.
- New Medicare Cards: Here's some interesting info about the new Medicare cards which have been sent out to Medicare eligible retirees. Some folks have new account numbers with the letter "O" and/or the number "0". How do you tell the difference??? Well, just look at the date on the bottom right side of the card where the effective date of Medicare coverage is shown on the first of the month listed as "01". IF your symbol resembles the number "0" in the effective date or does not, you have your answer. There is a reason that many thoughtful organizations do not use either symbol.
- How to find and Compare Hospitals using Medicare.gov website: Searching for the right hospital for you or a loved one? When you're able to plan ahead, use Hospital Compare. This free tool helps you find hospitals and compare differences in quality of care, both locally and nationwide. When you're comparing hospitals, consider the following information:
  - Has the best experience with your condition,
  - Participates in Medicare and is covered by your health plan,
  - Checks and improves the quality of its care,
  - Performs well on quality measures, including a national patient survey, and
  - Meets your needs in terms of location. After using Hospital Compare, talk with your health care provider to see which hospital will best meet your health care needs.
- MyMedicare.gov website: Medicare eligible retirees should register on MyMedicare.gov, a secure and personalized website, where you can manage your personal information regarding your Medicare benefits. You may find the following and other features on the site very interesting:
  - Create and maintain a list of your favorite health care providers,
  - View claim statuses and your yearly deductible status,
  - Sign up to receive your Medicare Summary Notices (MSNs) electronically,
  - Access online forms, publications, and messages sent to you by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), and
  - View your preventive services and record your medical history.
- Authorized User/s on Chevron and/or Texaco Credit Cards: Questions have been raised about the extension of the Chevron discount on the subject credit cards to authorized users, including spouses, surviving spouses, and other family dependents.

The eligibility guidelines under HR Policy 820 Employee Product and Purchases provide that an eligible Employee, Retiree or Expatriate (US-based) can apply for the subject credit card and get a Chevron discount as a Primary cardholder. Furthermore, the Primary cardholder can add an authorized user/s to their account. Should the Primary cardholder predecease their authorized user/s, the authorized user/s will need to contact Credit Card Customer Service at 1-800-243-8766 to close the primary cardholder's account and then apply for a new account to continue receiving the Chevron discount. Similarly, if a surviving spouse of a Primary cardholder was not an authorized user prior to the death of the Primary cardholder, that surviving spouse will need to apply for a new account and request for approval for a Chevron discount. Requests to receive a Chevron discount on the credit card will be forwarded to Chevron Human Resources for a determination. Requestors will then be notified of the determination made on their request for a Chevron discount on their credit card application.

Any further questions regarding the application process for the subject credit cards should be directed to Credit Card Customer Service at the above toll-free phone number.

Features

Jim Conard's Passion for Texaco

The previous issue of Encore (Q1, 2019) featured a story about the Texaco Building in Houston, Texas, which was recently converted into The Star Apartments, but retains a tie to the company's proud heritage through a collection of memorabilia in its basement recreation room. The room contains a rich mix of Texaco artifacts, including trucks, cars, photos and images of the company's Nascar and Indy 500 sponsorships, drawn from the collection of Texaco retiree Jim Conard.

As Texaco USA's retail manager from 1981 to 1987, Jim spent memorable working years in the building. Though he hadn't been in the building since 1988, he retained a store of rich memories of his time there – and the colleagues with whom he worked. Those memories were recently jolted back to life when he received a phone call from a public relations representative of Provident Realty Advisors, which had acquired the building and was converting it into an apartment complex.

The realtors knew that Jim had already contributed much of his rich collection of Texaco memorabilia to the Dobson Museum in Miami, Okla., and hoped he had additional material to help decorate The Star's recreation room

When the public relations representative explained the realtors' plans, Jim responded, "That'd be terrific. It could be really nice." He later talked to Lauren Parsons, who was designing the apartment complex. "I gave her a few ideas and a drawing I made, showing how the rec room might look."

Jim added, “They gathered my passion for Texaco. And they realized the importance of recognizing the value of the Texaco brand.”

Jim was clearly the right person to provide artifacts linking the apartment complex to Texaco. His connection to the company dates to shortly after World War II, when his father Odell Scott Conard bought land along historic Route 66 for a home and Texaco service station. Jim began working in the station at age 13, cleaning the service bays and waiting on customers.

After graduating from college and teaching at North Oklahoma A&M College, Jim joined Texaco in 1963 as a sales representative in Tulsa, Okla. He soon became an ardent collector of Texaco memorabilia. “My first collectible was an ashtray showing the opening of the Tulsa building in which I worked,” said Jim. “After that, I started collecting cars, trucks and other Texaco memorabilia, driven in part by my marketing position, which involved pushing our link to the company’s stations and retail network.”

Jim’s collection continued to grow until 2007, when he donated most of the material to the Dobson Museum. But he continued to look for Texaco artifacts, particularly at estate sales. And many of these more recent acquisitions went into his contribution to The Star’s recreation room. He also called former colleagues, asking them to supplement his donations. And he advised Parsons on where she might acquire other Texaco memorabilia.

When she finally sent him photos of the Texaco displays, Jim was ecstatic. “I said, ‘Lauren, you’ve hit a home run.’”

Although Jim’s former collection is now in Houston and his former hometown of Miami, his current abode in Atlanta, Ga., retains some items that he calls “keepers.” They include two leather chairs that he bought when Texaco left its former headquarters in New York’s Chrysler Building; a coat rack, also from the Chrysler Building; and a small Texaco pump on his credenza.

As creator of a website – www.route66texaco.com – Jim continues to promote Texaco’s history, including some of its iconic commercials. And now, with the completion of The Star Apartments, his warm memories of the company have another rich outlet.
